

Zentrale Hochschulbibliothek opens its doors with restrictions

Dear users of the ZHB,

the ZHB resumes operations with restrictions. Please note the ZHBs hygiene concept (in german) and the following restrictions:

- » As of June 4th the library is open to everyone, subject to the access and service restrictions.
- » Reserved media can be picked up at the earliest 24 hours after receiving the notification.
- » Fees and topping up interlibrary loan accounts can again be paid at the counter.
- » The use of user PCs and thus the possibility of printing is not available at present.

As soon as the official requirements allow us to provide further services, we will quickly expand our range of services and publish this on our website.

The ZHB's e-media offer is still available to members of the European University and the Flensburg University of Applied Sciences and is continuously extended. Further information on newly licensed media can be found here.

You can access e-books, e-journals and databases from any location via VPN. Information on VPN and e-media can be found in the e-media leaflet \(in german\) or in the online courses of the ZHB on the e-learning platforms of the EUF and FUAS.

If you need information or have any questions, please send an e-mail to info@zhb-flensburg.de

Subject to change without notice.
