

ZHB learning videos (english versions now available)

11/02/2020

As of today, you will find short learning videos on the ZHB website.

These currently include an introduction to the Discoverysystem including the use of e-books and e-journals. Further videos on interlibrary loan and databases, among other things, as well as English versions are to follow in the coming weeks.

You can find the videos here.
